OUR FAMILY, OUR HISTORY

Tenuta di Murlo is one of the largest private country estates in Italy owned by the same family since generations.

In the estate we have nine villas, all with private garden and pool, three deluxe rooms, a lovely restaurant and many services available for our guests, including a very dedicated concierge service available for every need our guests may have.

Moreover, the Antognolla Golf Course is just 3 minutes driving away from the West entrance of the estate.

Tenuta di Murlo is quite a unique and special place in Italy. It combines the privacy of a rental villa with the full selection of services you would typically find in a five star hotel.

“When my husband and I were engaged, it became our cherished meeting spot, perfectly situated between Rome and Bologna. It holds so many memories for us, and it’s this timeless beauty and family legacy that we now feel inspired to share with the world.”
