13 Last-Minute Easter Breaks to Book Now

Need to escape it all? It's not too late to find your perfect Easter escape

BY REBECCA COX

Having survived the first quarter of the year intact, it's now time for a well-earned Easter holiday. If you're hunting for a last-minute Easter break and haven't found what you're looking for in our Easter staycation guide of UK options, widen your search field. Here, we round up some of the most appealing ways to spend the long weekend and beyond, from Swiss skiing to a Maldivian private island.

ITALY: Villa Caminata, Umbria

If you want a rustic Italian escape for all the family, head to Villa Caminata on the Umbrian estate of Tenuta di Murlo. The villa sleeps up to 12 people in three king-size double bedrooms and two twin bedrooms, all with en-suite, plus a second one-bedroom cottage means another couple can join the trip (and pitch in with the childcare, hello grandparents). The villa also allows access to the estate's exclusive restaurant, Il Caldaro, the 18-hole championship Antognolla golf course, and seasonal activities on-site.

BOOK: Villa Caminata costs from €6,000 per week for 8 people, €6,500 per week for 10, and €7,000 per week for 12 people. Available for bookings between 8 – 29 April | murlo.com
